

Membership Benefits Summary

As a member of the National Theological Association (NTA), you will enjoy a range of benefits that support your institution's mission and goals. Here are some of the benefits you can expect:

Accredited Members

- Accreditation Logo: Use of NTA's accreditation logo to demonstrate your institution's commitment to quality and excellence.
- Recognition: Recognition as an accredited institution by NTA, enhancing your institution's credibility and reputation.
- Networking Opportunities: Opportunities to connect with other accredited institutions and professionals in the field, including:
 - Attendance at NTA's annual conference
 - Participation in NTA's special interest groups
 - Access to NTA's online community
- Professional Development: Access to NTA's conferences, workshops, and resources to support ongoing professional development, including:
 - Continuing education credits
 - Faculty development opportunities
 - Institutional assessment and evaluation tools
- Community Engagement: Opportunities for collaboration and partnership with other accredited institutions and organizations, including:
 - Joint research projects
 - Collaborative program development
 - Shared resources and expertise

Associate Members

- Access to Resources: Access to NTA's resources and network, including:
 - Conferences and workshops
 - Publications and research
 - Online community and forums
- Professional Development: Opportunities for professional development and growth, including:
 - Training and workshops
 - Mentoring and coaching
 - Access to NTA's expertise and resources
- Support and Guidance: Support and guidance towards accreditation, including:
 - Accreditation consulting
 - Self-study guidance
 - Peer review and feedback

- Networking Opportunities*: Opportunities to connect with other institutions and professionals in the field, including:
 - Attendance at NTA's annual conference
 - Participation in NTA's special interest groups
 - Access to NTA's online community
- Discounts*: Discounts on NTA's conferences and workshops, including:
 - Reduced registration fees
 - Special promotions and offers

Benefits for All Members

- Representation*: NTA will represent the interests of its members in relevant forums and contexts, including:
 - Government agencies
 - Accrediting bodies
 - Professional organizations
- Community Engagement*: Opportunities for collaboration and partnership with other members and organizations, including:
 - Joint research projects
 - Collaborative program development
 - Shared resources and expertise
- Professional Development*: Access to NTA's resources and network to support ongoing professional development, including:
 - Continuing education credits
 - Faculty development opportunities
 - Institutional assessment and evaluation tools
- Networking Opportunities*: Opportunities to connect with other institutions and professionals in the field, including:
 - Attendance at NTA's annual conference
 - Participation in NTA's special interest groups
 - Access to NTA's online community